Animal missing! What now?

- Contact Sichhänn.lu : +352 28 99 73 79
Leave a voice message with the following information:
Name, phone number and briefly explain what happened.
- Don't run after the dog!
He is faster anyway and you are chasing him away.
- Stay at the escape site!
Even though it may take a few hours or longer, most dogs come back on their own.
- Stay calm!
Do not call or become frantic. A stressed or anxious dog will not even go to its owner, or even a stranger, if that person does not convey calm.
- No searching with friends or strangers!
You will only chase your dog away and in the worst case he runs onto a road.
- Inform the police and the forest ranger!
- Make sure that the microchip is correctly registered!
You can look this up here: www.europetnet.com
If not, please register him as soon as possible, e.g. at Tasso.net

Who are we?

Sichhänn.lu is an association (asbl) composed of volunteers, who are trained with their dogs in the field of searching for missing people and animals, the so-called mantrailing and pettrailing.

With our years of experience and training, regular further training and a well-stocked and constantly expanding equipment, we offer our help to find missing persons and/or animals.

Our service is voluntary, therefore we appreciate any financial support in the form of a donation to maintain and upgrade our equipment.

Social Media

Social media is an important tool for the distribution of missing alerts!

It is important to write in the alert that no one should run around searching, but only sightings should be reported with exact details of time and place.

Frequently asked questions:

- When does it make sense to use a search dog?
- What does Sichhänn.lu need to be able to search for an animal?
- How do I secure a sample of my dog's scent for an emergency?

- Where can I buy the Sichhänn.lu scent conservation kit?

You can find answers to these questions and further information on our website:
